

Application form

OD2B_en_19012026

Application for family reunification under EU regulations when you are a child/grandchild of a Danish citizen/the spouse of a Danish citizen etc. and you are under the age of 21

What can you use this form for?

You can use this form to apply for an EU residence document in Denmark as a child/grandchild of a Danish citizen/the spouse of a Danish citizen etc. under EU regulations and you are under the age of 21.

You must complete this form with the Danish citizen whom you wish to conduct a family reunification with in Denmark.

We use the term "EU country" as a collective term of the EU/EEA countries and Switzerland.

Who can use this form?

The form can be used by anyone (EU citizens as well as third-country citizens) who is a direct descendant (child/grandchild) of a Danish citizen or the Danish citizen's spouse, registered partner or cohabiting partner and is under the age of 21, and where the Danish citizen

- exercises or have previously exercised his or her right to free movement in another EU country and where
- both of you have had your family life based in the other EU country and now wish to return to Denmark.

You can also use this form if you are a third-country citizen and your Danish family member lives in Denmark and

- provides services to other EU countries to a significant extent
- travels on business to other EU countries during a significant amount of his or her working hours
- is an employee in another EU country.

If you are a child over the age of 21, a parent, or another family member of the Danish citizen or the Danish citizen's spouse etc., you must use the form OD2/C.

If your Danish family member has not had residence in another EU country

If your Danish family member has not exercised his or her right to free movement in another EU country, you must submit an application for family reunification to the Danish Immigration Service.

If your family member whom you are applying for family reunification with is not a Danish citizen, but has a citizenship in another EU country, you must use the application form OD1/B. You must submit the application form OD1/B to the Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration (SIRI).

Biometric features (digital facial image and fingerprints) on residence cards to third-country citizens

Third-country nationals, i.e. applicants who are not citizens of an EU or EEA country nor Switzerland, must appear in person to have their biometric features (digital facial image and fingerprints) and signature recorded for their residence card.

Accompanying child

A child under the age of 18 who is going to live with a custody holder in Denmark is not normally required to hold a residence card.

However, the child can request to be issued a residence card. If the child requests a residence card, the child must have his/her biometric features (digital facial image and fingerprints) recorded in connection with submitting the application. If the child is under the age of 6, the child only needs to have his/her facial image recorded.

If a child is not to live with a custody holder in Denmark, but is instead to live with e.g. a foster parent or a close relative, the child must hold a residence card. The child must appear in person to have his/her biometric features recorded.

EU citizens

As an EU citizen, you are not required to have your biometric features recorded, and you will not be issued a residence card.

5. Residence cards for children who are third-country citizens

Children who live with a custody holder

A child under the age of 18 who is going to live with a custody holder in Denmark is not normally required to hold a residence card. However, the child can request to be issued a residence card. If the child requests a residence card, the child must have his/her biometric features (digital facial image and fingerprints) recorded in connection with submitting the application.

If the child submits the application via SIRI's contact form on newtodenmark.dk/SIRI-contactform, the child must appear in person to have his/her biometric features recorded – preferably within 14 days of the application being submitted.

The child must always bring his/her passport or other travel documentation, when the child is to have his/her biometric features recorded. In connection with the child's biometric features being recorded, the child's signature is also recorded. The digital facial image and fingerprints are stored on a microchip embedded in the residence card that will be issued the child, if the child is granted a residence permit. If the child is under the age of 6, the child only needs to have his/her facial image recorded.

If the child does not request a residence card, he/she does not need to have his/her biometric features recorded. If the child later needs a residence card, the child must submit a separate application for a residence card (KO1/SIRI).

Children who are not to live with a custody holder

If the child is not to live with a custody holder in Denmark, but is instead to live with e.g. a foster parent or a close relative, the child must hold a residence card.

If the child is not living with a custody holder in Denmark and fails to have his/her facial images and fingerprints recorded or if the child fails to submit a facial image that they have brought with them in connection with submitting the application, SIRI cannot issue a residence card. If the child is under the age of 6, the child is exempt from having his/her fingerprints recorded. The child is also exempt if the child is physically incapable of having his/her fingerprints recorded.

You can read more about residence cards on newtodenmark.dk/biometrics.

6a. Information about your residence in the other EU country

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

If your Danish family member lives in Denmark and provides services or travels on business etc. from Denmark to other EU countries, please go directly to section 7.

Genuine and effective residence in another EU country

In order for you obtain a derived right of residence in Denmark under EU regulations, it is a requirement that your Danish family member has established a genuine and effective residence in another EU country.

A genuine and effective residence in another EU country means that your Danish family member has lived his/her life and arranged himself/herself in such a way that shows that he/she has had his/her life in the EU country up until his/her return to Denmark. A genuine and effective relocation to the EU country must have taken place, and not simply a short-term stay, e.g. at a hotel room or a family visit.

The documentation you submit must therefore show that your Danish family member has drawn the consequences that naturally follow from relocating to another country and physically residing there.

Free movement (your Danish family member's grounds for residence)

As a rule, your Danish family member has exercised his/her right to free movement if he/she has resided in another EU country

- an employee, a self-employed person or a service provider in the other EU country
- a student enrolled in an educational programme in the other EU country
- a person with sufficient funds
- a posted worker, or
- a retired employee/self-employed person or a retired service provider.

If your Danish family member has worked/studied in Denmark during the residence in the other EU country

As a rule, if your Danish family member has worked in Denmark during the residence in the other EU country, his/her grounds for residence in the other EU country have not been as an employee/a self-employed person.

The same rule also applies if your Danish family member has received a pension from Denmark during the residence in the other EU country.

In order for your Danish family member to have grounds for residence as an employee in the other EU country, it is a requirement that your Danish family member has been employed in the country in question.

If your Danish family member has been enrolled in an educational programme in Denmark during the residence in the other EU country, his/her grounds for residence in the other EU country have not been as a student.

Instead, the income from your Danish family member's work, study, etc. in Denmark could mean that he/she has had grounds for residence as a person with sufficient funds (self-supporting) in the other EU country.

When you apply, it is important that you inform us of your Danish family member's correct grounds for residence in the other EU country, and that you attach the correct documentation proving this.

You can read more about the conditions for residence under the EU regulations at newtodenmark.dk/EU-residence.

Yes ☐ No

If no, which of the children and why not?

6b. Financial support requirement

If your Danish family member lives in Denmark and provides services or travels on business etc. from Denmark to other EU countries, please go directly to section 7.

In certain cases, there can be requirements of financial support for family reunification under EU regulations. This means that you must document that your Danish family member can financially support you and any other family members during your residence in Denmark. This is to ensure that you cannot be assumed to need public financial support.

Whether you are subject to the financial support requirement depends on which grounds for residence your Danish family member had in the other EU country.

Person with sufficient funds or student in the other EU country

There is a requirement for financial support. You must attach documentation proving that your Danish family member can financially support himself/herself and all family members who apply for residence under the EU regulations.

How do I document financial support?

Financial support can be documented by submitting documents (e.g. employment contract, bank statements, etc.) proving that your Danish family member has sufficient income or sufficient funds to financially support the people in question. This is to ensure that the people in question cannot be assumed to need public financial support.

You automatically meet this requirement if you and your Danish family member have funds or income that correspond to the support that you can receive as self-sufficiency and return benefits. You can find the rates at borger.dk. After clicking the link, you need to look under the tab "Hvor meget kan jeg få i selvforsørgelses- og hjemrejseydelse eller overgangsydelse?" (the web page is only available in Danish).

We can obtain information from the Danish Tax Agency's income register (eIncome). We do so in order to determine whether your Danish family member has sufficient funds for financial support.

If your Danish family member continues or starts working as he/she returns to Denmark

If your Danish family member was a student or a person with sufficient funds in the other EU country, there is no requirement for financial support if he/she continues or starts either working or being self-employed in Denmark in connection with his/her return to Denmark.

There is a requirement for financial support if your Danish family member stops working at a later time.

You must provide documentation proving that your Danish family member will either continue or start working in Denmark as he/she returns to Denmark.

Employee/self-employed person or right to permanent residence in the other EU country

There is no requirement for financial support if your Danish family member's grounds for residence in the other EU country are/were as an employee/a self-employed person or if he/she has/had the right to permanent residence.

Student in the other EU country

If your Danish family member was a student in the other EU country, he/she must sign the declaration of self-support below.

Declaration of self-support if your Danish family member was a student in the other EU country

The undersigned, who is/was a student in the other EU country, hereby declares to have sufficient funds to financially support myself and my family in Denmark without needing public financial support.

This also applies to my spouse/registered partner/cohabiting partner, as well as mine or my spouse's/registered partner's/cohabiting partner's children under the age of 21.

7. If your Danish family member lives in Denmark and provides services or travels on business etc. from Denmark to other EU countries

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

In very special instances, a family member to a Danish citizen residing in Denmark may be granted family reunification under the EU regulations if the Danish citizen exercises economic activity in other EU countries.

The three options where you may be granted family reunification if the Danish citizen exercises economic activity in other EU countries are if:

1. The Danish citizen lives in Denmark, is a self-employed person in Denmark and provides services to other EU countries

Here, the Danish citizen must:

- provide cross-border services to people who reside in another EU country,
- travel on business to the EU countries that he/she provides services to, and
- provide services to such an extent that the Danish citizen spends a large proportion of his/her professional activities on these cross-border services, partly in the home country and partly in the other EU countries

There is no established lower limit for how large a proportion of working hours the Danish citizen must spend on cross-border services. However, 30 pct. of his/her working hours will typically be assessed as sufficient.

2. The Danish citizen lives in Denmark, works for an employer established in Denmark and regularly travels to other EU countries on business

Here, the Danish citizen must:

- regularly travel to other EU countries on business
- be employed under the condition that a certain amount of the Danish citizen's working hours will be spent in another EU country

There is no established lower limit for how large a proportion of working hours the Danish citizen must spend on preparing and completing the business trips. However, 30 pct. of his/her working hours will typically be assessed as sufficient.

3. The Danish citizen lives in Denmark and is an employee in another EU country

Here, the Danish citizen must:

- work in another EU country to an extent that meets the requirements for having the status of an employee under the EU regulations (read more on newtodenmark.dk/EU-residence).

Conditions that apply to all three options

For all three options, family reunification must be necessary to ensure that the Danish citizen can exercise his/her right to free movement.

It is not enough for you to want to live in Denmark with your Danish family member. More is required to meet the condition of necessity.

If the Danish citizen's spouse is caring for the Danish citizen's child, this may be a relevant factor when assessing whether the family reunification is necessary.

Furthermore, the following conditions must also be met:

- You must have entered Denmark legally
- You must establish a genuine family life in Denmark

If you are applying for family reunification on the grounds of these circumstances, you must complete section 7a-7d.

It is up to you to provide documentation proving that your Danish family member meets the conditions listed above.

- I can be required by law to repay the expenses incurred by the Danish state as a consequence of the false information.

B. Information about the duty to provide necessary information

It is your duty to provide the information necessary to determine whether you/your Danish family member can obtain an EU residence document. If you do not provide this information, it may mean that you/your Danish family member will not be issued an EU residence document.

C. Information on how we process your personal data

SIRI is obliged to inform you of how we process your data and to inform you of your rights in regard to how we process your data.

Data controller

SIRI is the data controller and is responsible for processing the personal data given in this application form, and the data provided about you during the processing of the case. You can contact the agency through our contact form on newtodenmark.dk/SIRI-contactform.

You can contact our data protection officer by using our contact form at newtodenmark.dk/SIRI-contactform.

You can read more about SIRI as data controller and about SIRI's data protection officer on newtodenmark.dk/personaldata.

Purpose and legal basis

The personal data you provide to SIRI is collected and used:

- to process your application for an EU residence document in Denmark
- in any later applications for an extension of your right to reside, permanent residence or a new EU residence document in Denmark
- for verification and spot checks of the conditions for your EU residence document in Denmark

The legal basis for processing your personal data is:

- Executive order on EU residence
- The Danish Aliens Act, in particular chapter 1 on the entry and residence of aliens in Denmark.
- The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), article 6.1 (c) (relating to the processing of data in order to comply with the legal obligation to which the controller is subject) and 6.1 (e) (relating to the exercise of official authority vested in SIRI by the Aliens Act).
- The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), article 9.2 (f) (relating to the necessity of processing in order to establish, exercise or defend legal claims).
- The Danish Data Protection Act section 8 (relating to the official authority only being allowed to process information about criminal offences if it is necessary for tasks of that official authority).

The information you give or have given in connection with your application will be registered in the registers of Danish immigration authorities. The same holds true for any information you later give in connection with an application for permanent residence, extension of your EU residence, a new EU residence document in Denmark or in connection with a possible verification and spot check.

Some data, including biometric data, will be registered in the Schengen Information System (SIS) under certain circumstances. This applies if you have been given a time limit for departure in relation to your application or your residence in Denmark. It also applies if you have been banned from the Schengen area.

We process the following categories of data about you:

- General personal data, such as: information about your name, civil registration number (CPR number), citizenship, occupation, educational background, marital status, financial information and whether you have committed any legally punishable offences.
- Sensitive personal data, such as health information.

We can disclose your data to the following recipients:

SIRI may disclose information to your Danish family member, municipal authorities, the police, the Danish Security and Intelligence Service and the Danish Defence Intelligence Service, the public prosecutor, the Immigration Appeals Board, the Refugee Appeals Board, the Ministry of Immigration and Integration, the Danish immigration Service, The Danish Return Agency, the Danish Agency for Labour Market and Recruitment (STAR), the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark, The Danish Parliament and the Agency of Family Law.

SIRI may also disclose information about you, including information from your case, to the Department of the Ministry of Immigration and Integration. The Department may process your information when this is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the exercise of official authority, including the preparation of statistics, drafting and evaluation of legislation, assistance to the Danish Parliament, processing enquiries from the media and requests for public access, and in the performance of other such official tasks of the Ministry of Immigration and Integration. The Department may also process information about you from other public authorities, for instance personal data relating to criminal convictions and offences, information about your taxes or information about your employment.

You can find more information about the Department's processing of your personal data at uim.dk/processing-of-your-personal-data

On the website you will find the Department's contact information, information about the Department's Data Protection Officer (DPO), further information about the Department's legal basis for the processing of your personal data, and about your rights in relation to our data processing activities.

In isolated cases, SIRI also passes on your data to other public authorities, private sector organisations and foreign organisations and authorities when it is necessary to exercise our official authority.

Personal data will be shared with the relevant authorities in the other Schengen states, when SIRI is legally obliged to do so. These authorities will have access to the information registered in SIS by SIRI when it is relevant to their case processing.

Furthermore, data from SIRI's registers and the CPR register are shared with other relevant authorities or organisations via the Aliens Information Portal (Udlændingeinformationsportalen) if they need the data in order to process aspects of your stay in Denmark.

SIRI shares data when it is necessary in order to exercise our official authority, including when we are legally obliged to share information.

Particularly for third-country nationals

If you lose your grounds for EU residence, we will inform any current or former employers that you are no longer entitled to work. This will happen, if we give you a refusal to an application for an EU residence document or for an extension of your EU residence document. This will also happen, if your EU residence document is revoked or if we find that your right to residence under the Executive Order on EU residence has expired or lapsed. The information will be given to employers who have reported wages paid to you within the last 3 months to the income register.

What is the origin of the data we process about you?

The personal data that SIRI processes about you have been provided by you in this application form. We will also process data you may submit to your case later.

In addition to this, we will process data obtained from:

- any previous applications submitted to SIRI by you,
- searches in databases, such as: the Civil Registration System (CPR), the Income Register (eIncome), the Central Business Register (CVR) and the Schengen Information System (SIS),
- other authorities, such as: municipal authorities, the Danish Immigration Service, the Immigration Appeals Board and the Refugee Appeals Board,
- third-party or reference, such as family members, employers or educational institutions,
- any person applying for EU residence based on your grounds for EU residence in Denmark, and this person's previous cases with SIRI,
- any person on the basis of whom you are applying for an EU residence document and this person's previous cases with SIRI.

Storage of data

SIRI will store your personal data for as long as it is necessary in order to be able to carry out our tasks in relation to establishing or defending a legal claim to residence.

Data submitted as part of an immigration related matter can be stored for use by the immigration authorities at a later date. This means that the data can enter into the decision making process regarding future applications for extension, when revoking an EU residence document, for verification and spot checks, when deciding whether a right to reside has lapsed, in relation to applications for permanent residency and for naturalisation and in cases concerning any family members.

In practice, this means that SIRI will store your data for the period of your 'lifecycle' – i.e. your entire life. Basic data regarding your stay in Denmark, e.g. when and why you have been granted an EU residence document and information on other decisions made by SIRI regarding your residence in Denmark will not be erased.

Personal data registered in the Schengen Information System (SIS) in relation to a deadline for departure are normally stored in SIS until your exit from the Schengen area is registered. If the data are registered in relation to an entry ban to the Schengen area, these data will, as a rule, be stored until the entry ban has expired.

Finally, it must be mentioned that data will be transferred to the Danish National Archives in accordance with the Danish Archives Act.

Your rights

Under the GDPR, you have a number of rights in relation to our processing of data about you:

The right to know what kind of data we process about you

You have the right to ask what kind of data we are processing about you and be granted access to these data. If you request access to your data, your application will be processed in accordance with the GDPR's regulations governing right of access. If there are other regulations which provide you with greater access than the GDPR affords, your request for access will be processed in accordance with these regulations as well. These additional regulations may include those contained in the Public Administration Act that governs freedom of information requests.

The right to rectification (data correction) and the right to have your data erased

You have the right to request that corrections be made to personal data about you that you find inaccurate. In specific situations, you also have the right to have your data erased. As a rule, information can only be erased, if it is not necessary for processing your case as SIRI is obliged to record and register information in accordance with the Public Administration Act.

The right to restriction of processing

In some situations, you have the right to restrict the processing of your personal data. Where processing has been restricted, SIRI may thereafter, with the exception of storage, only process your data with your consent unless the purpose of the processing is to establish or defend a legal claim, to protect another person or for reasons of important public interest.

The right to object

In some situations, you have the right to object to otherwise legal processing of your personal data. This means that you can request that your data is erased, corrected or restricted.

You can read more about your rights in the Danish Data Protection Agency's guidelines about GDPR at datatilsynet.dk. If you would like to make use of your rights under the GDPR, contact SIRI.

Complaints to the Data Protection Agency

You have the right to submit a complaint to the Data Protection Agency if you are dissatisfied with the way we process your personal data. Contact information for the Data Protection Agency is available at datatilsynet.dk.

D. Verification and spot-checks

Your case may be selected for a spot-check. The spot-check aims to verify the following:

- The accuracy of the information you have given.
- Whether you meet the conditions for an EU residence document.

Verification may involve the following:

- Checking public registers, such as the Civil Registration System (CPR).
- Contacting other authorities, such as municipalities.
- Contacting third parties, such as employers or places of study.
- Turning up in person at your residence, place of study or workplace.

You may be asked to supply additional information as part of the verification and spot-check process.

9. Consent for SIRI to exchange information in the case with your Danish family member

SIRI can share information about you with your Danish family member (e.g. in order to enable SIRI to verify the accuracy of the information you have provided in the application, or in order to check whether you continue to meet the conditions of your permit) without your consent when necessary in order to process your application or as part of later spot-checks. See section C "Information on how we process your personal data" above.

However, it will sometimes ease the processing of your case if SIRI, to a greater extent, can share information about your personal circumstances with your Danish family member (e.g. if we cannot get in touch with you). If you would like SIRI to be able to share information with your Danish family member, you must give your consent below.

If you do not wish to give your consent to let SIRI share information in these situations, we will instead get the information from you (the applicant) and abstain from sharing information with your Danish family member. This may result in a longer processing time for your application.

You can at any point in time withdraw your consent. If you wish to withdraw your consent, you must inform us of this. Please find our contact information at newtodenmark.dk/contact-siri.

☐ I hereby consent to let the Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration (SIRI) share information about me with my Danish family member, to this greater extent in order to ease the processing of this application.

Information about appearing in person and documentation

Regardless of whether you submit an application on paper or via our contact form, you normally have to appear in person at the Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration (SIRI). You can read more about where to find our branch offices and how to book an appointment at newtodenmark.dk/contact-siri.

As part of the application process, you must have an ID check done when you submit your application.

You can have the ID check done and have your biometric features recorded at

- one of SIRI's branch offices in Denmark (read more at nyidanmark.dk/en-GB/Contact-us/Contact-SIRI/SIRI-branch-offices),
- or
- a Danish representation abroad (read more at um.dk/en/travel-and-residence).

You can have your biometric features recorded while we process your application. You can also choose to wait, until we have processed your application and you have received your residence document. However, please note that we cannot make a decision in your case until you have had the ID check done.

On the following page, you will find a checklist that shows which type of documentation you must attach to the application.

We ask that the documentation you bring with you is not stapled together and is attached in order.

How to provide documentation proving both of your residences in the other EU country

Your application must contain:

- ☐ A signed and dated application form
- ☐ A copy of your passport (all pages including the front and back cover) if you are a third-country citizen
- ☐ A copy of your passport (all pages including the front and back cover) or national ID card if you are an EU citizen.

You must attach documentation proving:

- ☐ that your Danish family member has had a genuine and effective residence in another EU country,
- ☐ that your Danish family member had grounds for residence and has exercised his/her right to free movement in another EU country. For instance, this can be as an employee or as a self-supporting person,
- ☐ your familial relationship to the Danish citizen, and
- ☐ that you have been residing in another EU country together with your Danish family member

It must be clear who the submitted documentation is about.

This can be the case if e.g. the name, CPR number or similar are clearly stated in the document. Documents without name etc. cannot be taken into consideration when making a decision regarding the case.

Please remember that if the documentation is not in a Nordic language or in English, the documentation must be translated into either Danish or English by a professional translator.

Please note that the list below only states examples of documentation. The examples are made on the basis of what SIRI has evaluated to be documentation that is relevant for the case processing and that is able to shorten the case processing time. Therefore, you do not necessarily need to submit all types of documentation that are listed below. You can also submit other documents and information than the examples listed below.
