

APPLICATION FOR BIRTH CERTIFICATE INFORMATION BEFORE ADOPTION

Use this application form if you are currently living outside the United Kingdom

Please use the Guidance Notes when completing this form.

In order to apply for birth certificate information before adoption you must be 18 years or over and have been adopted in England or Wales. Only the adopted person can apply for this information.

If you already know your birth information you may be able to apply for a copy of your original birth certificate. Please contact this office for advice.

A record of your adoption must be held by the Registrar General in order to go through this process.

GRO does not charge for this service. However charges may be incurred by an Overseas Agency.
