2. Questions about you and your spouse

The marriage must be a legal marriage under the laws of your own country. You must also demonstrate that you and your spouse have a strong bond. You can do this, for example, by answering questions about your relationship. Provide as much detail as possible, as this is an important part of your application. Do you need more space? If so, use a separate A4 sheet or separate A4 sheets. Also write the question number on this paper.

2.1 Is your marriage a legal marriage under the laws of your own country?

☐ yes

☐ no → This is probably not the right application for you.

2.2 On what date (dd-mm-yyyy) were you married??

2.3 When did you first meet your spouse? Be as specific as possible.

2.4 Did you live with your spouse?

☐ yes

☐ no → go to question 2.6

2.5 When did you start living together? At what address or addresses?

→ go to question 2.7

2.6 Why did you not live together?

2.18 What kind of relationship is this?

3. Appointment MVV

If the decision is positive, your spouse can make an appointment at a Dutch embassy or consulate in the country of origin. Or in the country where your spouse lives. Is there no Dutch embassy or consulate in the country where your family member lives? Then your spouse can make an appointment in the nearest country. See netherlandsworldwide.nl for all locations.

Your spouse will need a valid passport for this appointment. If your spouse does not have a valid passport, in certain cases they can obtain a temporary travel document (laissez passer) from the embassy or consulate. The conditions for obtaining a temporary travel document can be found at netherlandsworldwide.nl.

SUBMITTING DOCUMENTS

Explanation of documents

- The documents are an important part of your application. You can prove that you meet the requirements by submitting documents.
- If you do not submit all documents, the IND's decision will take longer.
- Submit the documents belonging to your application with this appendix. These documents are listed below. You do not need to send the pages with this list with your application.
- For more information about which documents to submit with your application, see 'Documents' at ind.nl/en/family-reunification.

From your spouse

☐ Copy of certificate of legal marriage

Send a copy of the marriage certificate. This certificate was issued by the authorities of the country in which you were legally married. Alternatively, send a copy of another document proving that you are married.

☐ Copy of proof of identity

For example, a passport or identity card. Or a copy of another document proving the identity of your spouse.

☐ Passport photograph

The passport photograph must not be more than 6 months old. It must be clear and sharp.

☐ Appendix Antecedents Certificate

This appendix is attached to this application form. Or download the Appendix Antecedents Certificate (PDF, 160 kB) on ind.nl/en/antecedentscertificate.

☐ Copy of military booklet

If your spouse has been in military service.

❑ Copy of front and back of residence document in case of a country of permanent residence

Does your spouse live in a country that your spouse does not have the nationality of? And is your spouse allowed to live there for more than 3 months (permanent residence)? Then send a copy of the residence permit of the country of permanent residence. Or a document showing that your spouse has applied to be in that country. And is allowed to wait on the decision on this application there.

❑ Statement and supporting evidence in the case of special circumstances or situations

Are there any special circumstances or situations the IND must know about? About you, about your spouse or about both of you? Mention this in question 5 of the application form and/or enclose a letter explaining the situation. Also send copies of any supporting documents.

From you

Do you have an asylum residence permit with subsidiary protection? If so, also enclose the following documents.

❑ Copies of income documents

Were you not an unaccompanied minor foreign national when you submitted your application? If so, send copies of documents showing your income. Check the Appendix Proof of income (pdf, 173 kB) on ind.nl/en/proof-income to find out which documents these are.

❑ Copy of proof of accommodation

Were you not an unaccompanied minor foreign national when you submitted your application? If so, send copies of documents proving that you have accommodation for yourself and your family member(s). Which documents are required depends on your situation. In any case, you must be registered at the stated address of the accommodation.

- Do you live in a home you own? If so, send a copy of the deed of sale for your home.
- Do you live in rented accommodation? If so, send a copy of the tenancy agreement. The tenancy agreement must include the tenant's details, the landlord's details, the address, the duration of the tenancy and the rent.
- Are you using temporary accommodation (transitional housing) whilst awaiting a permanent place to live? If so, send a copy of the user agreement for this temporary accommodation.
