Helpful Contacts for Your "Notice of Deficiency"

The IRS office whose phone number appears at the top of the notice can best address and access your tax information and help get you answers.

You also may be eligible for help from the Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS). TAS is an independent organization within the IRS that helps taxpayers and protects taxpayer rights. We help taxpayers whose problems with the IRS are causing financial difficulties, who've tried but haven't been able to resolve their problems with the IRS, or believe an IRS system or procedure isn't working as it should. And our service is free.

Your local advocate's number is in your local directory and at taxpayeradvocate.irs.gov. You can also call us at 1-877-777-4778. For more information about TAS and your rights under the Taxpayer Bill of Rights, visit the TAS website. TAS is your voice at the IRS.

TAS can't reverse a legally correct tax determination or extend the time you have to file a petition in the United States Tax Court (that time is set by law). TAS can help you resolve tax problems that you haven't been able to resolve on your own. The best thing you can do is act now!
