Volunteer Standards of Conduct

Volunteer Income Tax Assistance / Tax Counseling for the Elderly (VITA/TCE) Programs

The mission of the VITA/TCE return preparation programs is to assist eligible taxpayers in satisfying their tax responsibilities by providing free tax return preparation. To establish the greatest degree of public trust, volunteers are required to maintain the highest standards of ethical conduct and provide quality service.

Annually all VITA/TCE volunteers must pass the Volunteer Standards of Conduct (VSC) certification test and agree that they will adhere to the VSC by signing and dating Form 13615, Volunteer Standards of Conduct Agreement - VITA/TCE Programs,, prior to volunteering at a VITA/TCE site. In addition, return preparers, quality reviewers, coordinators, and tax law instructors must certify in Intake/Interview and Quality Review. Volunteers who answer tax law questions, instruct tax law classes, prepare or correct tax returns, or conduct quality reviews of completed returns must also certify in tax law prior to signing the form. Form 13615 is not valid until the sponsoring partner's approving official (coordinator, instructor, administrator, etc.) or IRS contact confirms the volunteer's identity, name and address, and signs and dates the form. Volunteers' names and addresses in Link & Learn taxes must match their government issued photo identification. Advise volunteers to update their My Account page in Link & Learn Taxes with their valid name and address.

As a volunteer in the VITA/TCE programs, you must adhere to the following Volunteer Standards of Conduct:

- VSC# 1 – Follow the Quality Site Requirements (QSR).
- VSC# 2 – Do not accept payment, ask for donations, or accept refund payments for federal or state tax return preparation from customers.
- VSC# 3 – Do not solicit business from taxpayers you assist or use the information you gained about them (taxpayer information) for any direct or indirect personal benefit for yourself or any other specific individual.
- VSC# 4 – Do not knowingly prepare false returns.
- VSC# 5 – Do not engage in criminal, infamous, dishonest, notoriously disgraceful conduct, or any other conduct considered to have a negative effect on the VITA/TCE Programs.
- VSC# 6 – Treat all taxpayers in a professional, courteous, and respectful manner.

Failure to comply with these standards could result in, but is not limited to, the following:

- Your removal from all VITA/TCE programs
- Inclusion in the IRS Volunteer Registry to bar future VITA/TCE activity indefinitely
- Deactivation of your sponsoring partner's site VITA/TCE electronic filing ID number (EFIN)
- Removal of all IRS products, supplies, loaned equipment, and taxpayer information from your site
- Termination of your sponsoring organization's partnership with the IRS
- Termination of grant funds from the IRS to your sponsoring partner and
- Referral of your conduct for potential TIGTA and criminal investigations

What's New

Redesigned. We have redesigned Form 843 and these instructions.

General Instructions

Purpose of Form

Use Form 843 to claim a refund or request an abatement of certain taxes, penalties, additions to tax, interest, and fees.

Do not use Form 843 to request an abatement of income, estate, or gift tax. Do not use Form 843 to request a refund of income tax or Additional Medicare Tax. Employers cannot use Form 843 to request a refund or an abatement of Federal Insurance Contributions Act (FICA) tax, Railroad Retirement Tax Act (RRTA) tax, or income tax withholding. Also, do not use Form 843 to amend a previously filed income or employment tax return. Do not use Form 843 to claim a refund of agreement fees, offer-in-compromise fees, or lien fees.

Checkboxes at the top of Form 843. Check the box at the top of your Form 843 that provides your reason for filing the form. Those reasons are listed below.

- An abatement or refund of tax, other than income, estate, or gift tax. Employers cannot use Form 843 to request an abatement of FICA tax, RRTA tax, or income tax withholding.
- An abatement or refund of tax, other than a tax for which a different form must be used. (See Do not use Form 843 when you must use a different tax form, later.)
- A refund to an employee of excess social security, Medicare, or RRTA tax withheld by any one employer but only if your employer will not adjust the overcollection. See Refund of Excess Social Security, Medicare, or RRTA Tax, later.
- A refund to an employee of excess tier 2 RRTA tax when, for the year, you had more than one railroad employer and your total tier 2 RRTA tax withheld or paid for the year was more than the tier 2 limit. See Excess Tier 2 RRTA Tax, later.
- A refund to an employee of social security, Medicare, or RRTA tax that was withheld in error but only if your employer will not adjust the overcollection. See Refund of Social Security and Medicare Tax Withheld in Error, later. If you are a nonresident alien, see Pub. 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens, for specific instructions.
- An abatement or refund of tier 1 RRTA tax for an employee representative.
- An abatement or refund of a penalty or addition to tax due to reasonable cause or other reason allowed under the law. (This includes a request for a refund or an abatement of the section 6676 penalty for an erroneous claim for refund, where the claim was due to reasonable cause. The penalty is assessed at 20% of the amount determined to be excessive.)
- An abatement or refund of the penalty imposed under section 6672 for failure to collect and pay over tax, or attempt to evade or defeat tax (Trust Fund Recovery Penalty).
- A refund of the penalty imposed under section 6695A for misstatements due to incorrect appraisals.
- A refund of the penalty imposed under section 6715 for misuse of dyed fuel.
- An abatement or refund under section 6404(f) of a penalty or an addition to tax caused by certain erroneous written advice from the IRS. See Requesting Abatement or Refund of a Penalty or Addition to Tax as a Result of Written Advice, later.
- An abatement or refund of interest due to IRS error or delay under section 6404(e)(1). See Requesting Abatement or Refund of Interest Due to IRS Error or Delay Under Section 6404\(e\)\(1\), later.

- A request for net interest rate of zero under Rev. Proc. 2000-26. See Requesting Net Interest Rate of Zero on Overlapping Tax Underpayments and Overpayments, later.
- An abatement or refund of assessed penalties, interest, or additions to tax because you were unable to read and timely respond to a standard print notice from the IRS. See Taxpayers With Visual Impairments and Disabilities, later.
- A refund of a branded prescription drug fee. See Branded Prescription Drug Fee, later.
- A refund of the annual fee on health insurance providers.

If you received an IRS notice notifying you of a change to an item on your tax return, or that you owe interest, a penalty, or addition to tax, follow the instructions on the notice. You may not have to file Form 843.

Other (specify). If your reason for filing Form 843 is not in the above bullet list, check “Other (specify)” under “Other” and enter your reason for filing the form. If you are required to use a tax form other than Form 843 to request your refund or abatement, do not check the “Other (specify)” box but see Do not use Form 843 when you must use a different tax form next.

Do not use Form 843 when you must use a different tax form.

- Use Form 1040-X, Amended U.S. Individual Income Tax Return, to change any amounts reported on Form 1040, 1040-SR, 1040A, 1040EZ, 1040-NR, or 1040-NR-EZ to change amounts previously adjusted by the IRS or to make certain elections after the prescribed deadline (see Regulations sections 301.9100-1 through -3).
- Employers must use the tax form that corresponds to the tax return previously filed to make an adjustment or claim a refund or an abatement of FICA tax, RRTA tax, or income tax withholding.

If you filed Schedule H (Form 1040) or Anexo H (sp) (Formulario 1040 (sp)), see Pub. 926, Household Employer's Tax Guide, for how to correct that form.

For more information, see Treasury Decision 9405 at IRS.gov/irb/2008-32_IRB#TD-9405.

- Use Form 4136, Credit for Federal Tax Paid on Fuels, to claim a credit against your income tax for certain nontaxable uses (or sales) of fuel during the income tax year. Also, use Form 4136 if you are a producer claiming a credit for alcohol fuel mixtures or biodiesel mixtures. However, you can use Form 8849, Claim for Refund of Excise Taxes, to claim a periodic refund instead of waiting to claim an annual credit on Form 4136.
- Use Form 8849 to claim a refund of excise taxes other than those resulting from adjustments to your reported liabilities. For example, use Form 8849 to claim a refund for an overpayment of excise taxes reported on Form(s) 11-C or 2290. See Pub. 510, Excise Taxes, for the appropriate forms to use to claim excise tax refunds.
- Use Form 720-X, Amended Quarterly Federal Excise Tax Return, to make adjustments to liability reported on Forms 720 you have filed for previous quarters. Do not use Form 720-X to make changes to claims made on Schedule C (Form 720), except for the section 4051(d) tire credit and section 6426 fuel credits. For a refund of excise taxes, use Form 8849.

- Use Form 730, Monthly Tax Return for Wagers, to claim a credit or refund of wagering tax. You may also use Schedule 6 (Form 8849).
- Use Form 6118, Claim for Refund of Income Tax Return Preparer and Promoter Penalties, to claim a refund of tax return preparer or promoter penalties you paid but believe were incorrectly charged.
- Use Form 1040-X and attach a corrected Form 8959, Additional Medicare Tax, to correct your liability for Additional Medicare Tax. If your Medicare wages, RRTA compensation, or self-employment income is adjusted, you may need to correct your liability, if any, for Additional Medicare Tax.
- Use Form 8379, Injured Spouse Allocation, to claim your portion of a joint refund used to offset your spouse's past due obligations.
- Individuals, estates, and trusts, filing within 1 year after the end of the year in which a claim of right adjustment under section 1341(b)(1), a net operating loss (NOL), a general business credit, or a net section 1256 contracts loss arose, can use Form 1045, Application for Tentative Refund, to apply for a “quick refund” resulting from any overpayment of tax due to the claim of right adjustment or the carryback of the loss or unused credit. Individuals can also get a refund by filing Form 1040-X instead of Form 1045. An estate or a trust can file an amended Form 1041, U.S. Income Tax Return for Estates and Trusts.
- Use Form 940, Employer's Annual Federal Unemployment (FUTA) Tax Return, for the tax year being amended to amend a previously filed Form 940. See the Instructions for Form 940.
- Use Form 1120-X, Amended U.S. Corporation Income Tax Return, to correct Form 1120 or 1120-A as originally filed, or as later adjusted by an amended return, a claim for refund, or an examination, or to make certain elections after the prescribed deadline (see Regulations sections 301.9100-1 through -3).
- Corporations (other than S corporations) can use Form 1139, Corporation Application for Tentative Refund, to apply for a “quick refund” of taxes from an overpayment of tax due to a claim of right adjustment under section 1341(b)(1); or the carryback of any NOL, a net capital loss, or an unused general business credit.
- Use Form 4720 to request a refund of an overpayment computed on Form 4720, Part III, line 4. But, use Form 843 to request an abatement of the tax reported on Form 4720.

Who Can File

You can file Form 843 or your authorized representative can file it for you. If your authorized representative files Form 843, the original or copy of Form 2848, Power of Attorney and Declaration of Representative, must be attached. You must sign Form 2848 and authorize the representative to act on your behalf for the purposes of the request. See the Instructions for Form 2848 for more information.

If you are filing as a legal representative for a decedent whose return you filed, attach to Form 843 a statement that you filed the return and you are still acting as the decedent's representative. If you did not file the decedent's return, attach certified copies of letters testamentary, letters of administration, or similar evidence to show your authority. File Form 1310, Statement of Person Claiming Refund Due a Deceased Taxpayer, with Form 843 if you are the legal representative of a decedent. See the instructions for Form 1310 for full details.

Also, see Paid Tax Return Preparer, later.

Where To File

IF you are filing Form 843...	THEN mail the form to...
in response to an IRS notice regarding a tax or fee related to certain taxes such as income, employment, gift, estate, excise, etc.	the return address from which the notice was sent.

for requests related to Form 8300 (Report of Cash Payments Over $10,000 Received in a Trade or Business)	Internal Revenue Service Rosa Parks Federal Building P.O. Box 32621 Detroit, MI 48232 for penalties, or for any other reason except those described above	the service center where you would be required to file a current year tax return for the tax to which your claim or request relates. See the instructions for the return you are filing.
Note. If you have mailed the form to an address that has changed, the form will be forwarded.

Separate Form Required

Generally, you must file a separate Form 843 for each tax period or fee year or type of tax or fee. There are exceptions for certain claims. See Special Situations, later, specifically How to request a net interest rate of zero under Requesting Net Interest Rate of Zero on Overlapping Tax Underpayments and Overpayments and Multiple tax years or types of tax under Requesting Abatement or Refund of Interest Due to IRS Error or Delay Under Section 6404(e)(1).

Generally, you must file a claim for a credit or refund within 3 years from the date you filed your original return or 2 years from the date you paid the tax, whichever is later. If you do not file a claim within this period, you may no longer be entitled to a credit or refund. See Pub. 556, Examination of Returns, Appeal Rights, and Claims for Refund, for more information. But see Requesting Abatement or Refund of a Penalty or Addition to Tax as a Result of Written Advice, later, for when to file a request for abatement or refund of a penalty or an addition to tax as a result of erroneous written advice.

Specific Instructions

Checkboxes, Name, Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN), and Address

Checkboxes. You must check one box above the name block at the top of the form to indicate your reason for filing Form 843. Do not check more than one box.

Name. Enter your name as the person requesting the refund or abatement. If your Form 843 relates to a joint return, enter the name of your spouse from the related joint return.

Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN). Enter your TIN. If you are filing Form 843 relating to a joint return, enter the SSNs for both you and your spouse from the related joint return. If you have an individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN) rather than an SSN, enter your ITIN (and, if this relates to a joint return, the ITIN of your spouse from the related joint return) whenever an SSN is requested. An entity, such as a partnership or corporation, filing this form will include the entity's Employer Identification Number (EIN) instead of an SSN or ITIN.

Address change. If you move after filing your Form 843, use Form 8822 to notify the IRS of your new address. If you are a business or other entity, use Form 8822-B to notify the IRS of a change in your business mailing address or your business location.

P.O. box. Enter your box number only if your post office doesn't deliver mail to your home.

Foreign address. If you have a foreign address, enter the city name on the appropriate line. Don't enter any other information on that line, but also complete the spaces below that line. Don't abbreviate the country name. Follow the country's practice for entering the postal code and the name of the province, county, or state.

Line Instructions

Line 1. Enter the tax period for which you are making the claim for refund or request for abatement. If you are requesting a refund of a branded prescription drug fee, enter the fee year on the "Beginning date (MM/DD/YYYY)" line.

Line 2. Enter the dollar amount for which you are requesting a refund or an abatement.

Line 3. If you are requesting a refund of payments you have already made, enter the date of each payment. If you need more space, attach additional sheets.

Line 4. Check the appropriate box to show the type of tax or fee for which you are claiming a refund or requesting an abatement. If the claim relates to interest, a penalty, or an addition to tax, check the box indicating the type of tax or fee to which the claim or request relates.

Do not use Form 843 when another tax form must be used. See Purpose of Form, earlier.

Line 5. Check the appropriate box to show the type of fee or return, if any, to which your claim or request relates. Check box i labeled "1040" to indicate other individual income tax returns (such as Form 1040-SR, 1040-NR, or 1040 (sp)).

Line 6. If you are requesting a refund or an abatement of an assessed penalty, enter the applicable Internal Revenue Code section. Generally, you can find the Code section on the Notice of Assessment you received from the IRS.

Line 7. Check the box that indicates your reason for the request for refund or abatement. If a, b, and c do not apply, check box d.

Line 8. Explain in detail your reasons for filing this claim or request. Show your computation for the credit, refund, or abatement. If you attach an additional sheet(s), include your name and SSN, ITIN, or employer identification number (EIN) on it. Attach appropriate supporting evidence. Include a statement that to the extent of equivalent amounts of underpayment and overpayment for the period(s) identified and established, the period(s) has (have) been used only once in a request to obtain the net interest rate of zero under section 6621(d). See Requesting Net Interest Rate of Zero on Overlapping Tax Underpayments and Overpayments, later, for more information.

Signature

If you are filing Form 843 to request a refund or an abatement relating to a joint return, both you and your spouse from the related joint return must sign the Form 843. Forms 843 filed by corporations must be signed by a corporate officer authorized to sign, and the officer's title must be included with the signature. Forms 843 filed by an estate or a trust must be signed by the fiduciary.

Paid Tax Return Preparer

A paid tax return preparer who files Form 843 for you must sign the form and fill in the identifying information at the bottom of the form. The tax preparer must give you a copy of the completed Form 843 for your records. Someone who prepares your Form 843 but does not charge you should not sign it.

Special Situations

Your Form 843 may deal with situations that have special qualifications or special rules. The items that follow give you specialized information so your Form 843 can be filed and processed correctly.

Taxpayers With Visual Impairments and Disabilities

If you were unable to read and timely respond to a standard print notice from the IRS, you may be able to request a refund or an abatement of assessed penalties, interest, or additions to tax. The following list illustrates the types of items you may want to include in your explanation on line 8 when completing Form 843 for this purpose.

- The nature of the disability that prevents you from reading and timely responding to notices in a standard print format.
- The date you received the standard print notice from the IRS and a description of the notice.
- The date you learned of the issue described in the standard print notice.
- Whether you requested that the IRS provide the notice (or previous notices) in an alternative format and, if so, the date of the request and the format requested.

Refund of Excess Social Security, Medicare, or RRTA Tax

If you are claiming a refund of excess social security, Medicare, or RRTA tax withheld by one employer, you must, if possible, attach a statement from the employer. The statement should indicate the following.

- The amount, if any, the employer has repaid or reimbursed you for excess taxes withheld.
 - The amount, if any, of credit or refund claimed by the employer or authorized by you to be claimed by the employer.
- The employer should include in the statement the fact that it is made in support of your claim for refund of employee tax paid by the employer to the IRS.

If you cannot obtain a statement from the employer, you should attach a statement with the same information to the best of your knowledge and belief and include in the statement an explanation of why you could not obtain a statement from the employer. Attach a copy of your Form W-2 to prove the amount of social security, Medicare, or RRTA tax withheld.

Excess Tier 2 RRTA Tax

Complete lines 1 and 2. Skip line 3. On line 4, check box a for "Employment" tax. Skip lines 5, 6, and 7. On line 8, identify the claim as "Excess tier 2 RRTA" and show your computation of the refund. You must also attach copies of your Forms W-2 for the year to Form 843. See the worksheet in Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax, to help you figure the excess amount.

Refund of Social Security or Medicare Tax Withheld in Error

The same supporting evidence described in Refund of Excess Social Security, Medicare, or RRTA Tax above must be provided. If you are a nonresident alien, see Pub. 519 for additional information.

Requesting Abatement or Refund of a Trust Fund Recovery Penalty (TFRP) Assessment

In order to file a claim for refund of a TFRP assessment for each applicable tax period, the taxpayer must pay the portion of the penalty attributable to either:

- One employee if the TFRP is based on employment taxes, or
- One transaction if the claim relates to a TFRP for excise taxes.

Requesting Abatement or Refund of a Penalty or Addition to Tax as a Result of Written Advice

The IRS can abate or refund any portion of a penalty or addition to tax caused by erroneous advice furnished to you in writing by an officer or employee of the IRS acting in their official capacity.

The IRS will abate the penalty or addition to tax only if:

1. You reasonably relied on the written advice,
2. The written advice was in response to a specific written request for advice made by you (or your representative who is allowed to practice before the IRS), and
3. The penalty or addition to tax did not result from your failure to provide the IRS with adequate or accurate information.

See Regulations section 301.6404-3 for more information.

How to request an abatement or refund of a penalty or an addition to tax as a result of written advice. Complete lines 1 through 4. On line 3, enter the date of payment if the penalty or addition to tax has been paid. On line 6, enter the applicable Internal Revenue Code section for the assessed penalty. Check box b on line 7.

You must attach copies of the following information to Form 843.

1. Your written request for advice.
2. The erroneous written advice you relied on that was furnished to you by the IRS.
3. The report, if any, of tax adjustments identifying the penalty or addition to tax and the item(s) relating to the erroneous advice.

When to file. An abatement of any penalty or addition to tax as a result of written advice will be allowed only if:

- You submit the request for abatement within the period allowed for collection of the penalty or addition to tax, or

- You paid the penalty or addition to tax within the period allowed for claiming a credit or refund of such penalty or addition to tax.

Requesting Abatement or Refund of Interest Due to IRS Error or Delay Under Section 6404(e) (1)

The IRS can abate interest if the interest is caused by IRS errors or delays. The IRS will abate the interest only if there was an unreasonable error or delay in performing a managerial or ministerial act (defined later). The taxpayer cannot have caused any significant aspect of the error or delay. In addition, the interest can be abated only if it relates to taxes for which a notice of deficiency is required. This includes income taxes, generation-skipping transfer taxes, estate and gift taxes, and certain excise taxes. Interest related to employment taxes or other excise taxes cannot be abated. See Pub. 556 for more information.

How to request abatement of interest on a tax. Complete lines 1 through 4. On line 3, show the dates of any payment of interest or tax liability for the period involved. Check box a on line 7.

On line 8, state:

- The type of tax involved,
- When you were first notified by the IRS in writing about the deficiency or payment,
- The specific period for which you are requesting abatement of interest,
- The circumstances of your case, and
- The reasons why you believe that failure to abate the interest would result in grossly unfair treatment.

Managerial act. The term “managerial act” means an administrative act that occurs during the processing of your case involving the temporary or permanent loss of records or the exercise of judgment or discretion relating to management of personnel. A decision regarding the proper application of federal tax law (or other federal or state law) is not a managerial act. See Regulations section 301.6404-2 for more information.

Ministerial act. The term “ministerial act” means a procedural or mechanical act that does not involve the exercise of judgment or discretion and that occurs during the processing of your case after all prerequisites of the act, such as conferences and review by supervisors, have taken place. A decision regarding the proper application of federal tax law (or other federal or state law) is not a ministerial act. See Regulations section 301.6404-2 for more information.

Multiple tax years or types of tax. File only one Form 843 if the interest assessment resulted from the IRS’s error or delay in performing a single managerial or ministerial act affecting a tax assessment for multiple tax years or types of tax (for example, where 2 or more tax years were under examination). Check the applicable box(es) on line 4 and provide a detailed explanation on line 8.

Requesting Net Interest Rate of Zero on Overlapping Tax Underpayments and Overpayments

If you have paid or are liable for interest on a tax underpayment and have received or are due interest on a tax overpayment for the same period of time, you can request that the IRS compute the interest using the net interest rate of zero.

How to request a net interest rate of zero. You must provide documentation to substantiate that you are the taxpayer entitled to receive the interest due on the overpayment.

Leave line 1 blank. You can enter a dollar amount on line 2 or leave it blank. Complete line 4 to indicate the type of tax.

Complete line 5 to indicate the type of return filed. More than one box can be checked on lines 4 and 5. Do not complete lines 3, 6, and 7.

On line 8, provide all of the following information.

1. The tax periods for which you overpaid and underpaid your tax liability. A separate Form 843 is not required for each separate tax period involved in the request.
2. When you paid the tax if the underpayment is no longer outstanding.
3. When you received your tax refund if the overpayment is no longer outstanding.
4. The period(s) that your overpayment and underpayment overlapped and the overlapping amount. You should provide any background material (such as copies of examination reports, notices, or prior interest computations provided by the IRS) relating to the overpayment and underpayment.
5. A computation, to the extent possible, of the amount of interest to be credited, refunded, or abated. If you are unable to provide a computation, provide an explanation of why you are unable to provide the computation. The computation should generally be made by applying section 6621(d) to reduce your underpayment interest payable to the IRS. However, if only the period of limitation for claiming additional overpayment interest is open on the date you file Form 843, you should make the computation by applying section 6621(d) to increase your overpayment interest payable by the IRS.
6. Section 6621(d) provides for a net interest rate of zero to the extent of the overlapping underpayment and overpayment of the same taxpayer. If your claim involves more than one taxpayer identification number (TIN), explain why the different TINs can be treated as the same taxpayer.

Branded Prescription Drug Fee

On line 1, enter the fee year on the “Beginning date (MM/DD/YYYY)” line. Complete line 2. Skip line 3. On line 4, check the box for “Fee.” On line 5, check box m for “Branded Prescription Drug (BPD) Fee.” Skip lines 6 and 7. On line 8, identify the claim as “Branded prescription drug fee” and explain why you are claiming a refund.

Attach a copy of the Form 8947, Report of Branded Prescription Drug Information, that provided the basis for the fee as calculated by the IRS, as well as any additional information on the amount to be refunded. You must tell us whether you or anyone else has filed a previous claim for any amount covered by this claim. Fee claims should not be combined with any other claims.

Note. Interest related to the branded prescription drug fee cannot be abated.

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Sections 6402 and 6404 state the conditions under which you may file a claim for refund and request for abatement of certain taxes, penalties, and interest. Form 843 may be used to file your claim or request. Section 6109 requires that you disclose your taxpayer identification number (TIN). Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil or criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and territories for use in administering their tax laws. We may also give this information to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws and to combat terrorism. You are not required to claim a refund or request an abatement; however, if you choose to do so, you are required to provide the information requested on this form. Failure to provide all of the requested information may delay or prevent processing your claim or request; providing false or fraudulent information may subject you to civil or criminal penalties.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by section 6103.

The time needed to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. The estimated average time is:

Recordkeeping	26 min.
Learning about the law or the form	20 min.
Preparing the form	28 min.
Copying, assembling, and sending the form to the IRS	20 min.

If you have comments concerning the accuracy of these time estimates or suggestions for making Form 843 simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. You can send us comments through IRS.gov/FormComments. Or you can send your comments to:

Internal Revenue Service
Tax Forms and Publications Division
1111 Constitution Ave. NW, IR-6526
Washington, DC 20224

Do not send the form to this address. Instead, see Where To File, earlier.

Although we can't respond individually to each comment received, we do appreciate your feedback and will consider your comments as we revise our tax forms and instructions.

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form 8840 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/Form8840.

General Instructions

Purpose of Form

Use Form 8840 to claim the closer connection to a foreign country(ies) exception to the substantial presence test. The exception is described later and in Regulations section 301.7701(b)-2.

Note: You are not eligible for the closer connection exception if any of the following apply.

- You were present in the United States 183 days or more in calendar year 2025.
- You are a lawful permanent resident of the United States (that is, you are a green card holder).
- You have applied for, or taken other affirmative steps to apply for, a green card; or have an application pending to change your status to that of a lawful permanent resident of the United States.

For more information on forms and other steps used to change the status to that of a permanent resident, refer to www.uscis.gov and www.dol.gov.

Even if you are not eligible for the closer connection exception, you may qualify for nonresident status by reason of a treaty. See the instructions for line 6 for more details.

Who Must File

If you are an alien individual and you meet the closer connection exception to the substantial presence test, you must file Form 8840 with the IRS to establish your claim that you are a nonresident of the United States by reason of that exception. Each alien individual must file a separate Form 8840 to claim the closer connection exception.

For more details on the substantial presence test and the closer connection exception, see Pub. 519.

Note: You can download forms and publications at www.irs.gov.

Substantial Presence Test

You are considered a U.S. resident if you meet the substantial presence test for 2025. You meet this test if you were physically present in the United States for at least:

- 31 days during 2025; and
- 183 days during the period 2025, 2024, and 2023, counting all the days of physical presence in 2025 but only 1/3 the number of days of presence in 2024 and only 1/6 the number of days in 2023.

Days of presence in the United States. Generally, you are treated as being present in the United States on any day that you are physically present in the country at any time during the day.

However, you do not count the following days of presence in the United States for purposes of the substantial presence test.

1. Days you regularly commuted to work in the United States from a residence in Canada or Mexico.

2. Days you were in the United States for less than 24 hours when you were traveling between two places outside the United States.

3. Days you were temporarily in the United States as a regular crew member of a foreign vessel engaged in transportation between the United States and a foreign country or a territory of the United States unless you otherwise engaged in trade or business on such a day.

4. Days you were unable to leave the United States because of a medical condition or medical problem that arose while you were in the United States.

5. Days you are in the United States under a NATO visa as a member of a force or civilian component to NATO. However, this exception does not apply to an immediate family member who is present in the United States under a NATO visa. A dependent family member must count every day of presence for purposes of the substantial presence test.

6. Days you were an exempt individual.

In general, an exempt individual is (a) a foreign government-related individual, (b) a teacher or trainee, (c) a student, or (d) a professional athlete competing in a charitable sports event. For more details, see Pub. 519.

Note: If you qualify to exclude days of presence in the United States because you were an exempt individual (other than a foreign government-related individual) or because of a medical condition or medical problem (see item 4, earlier), you must file Form 8843.

Closer Connection Exception

Even though you would otherwise meet the substantial presence test, you will not be treated as a U.S. resident for 2025 if:

- You were present in the United States for fewer than 183 days during 2025;
- You establish that, during 2025, you had a tax home in a foreign country; and
- You establish that, during 2025, you had a closer connection to one foreign country in which you had a tax home than to the United States, unless you had a closer connection to two foreign countries.

Closer Connection to Two Foreign Countries

You can demonstrate that you have a closer connection to two foreign countries (but not more than two) if all five of the following apply.

1. You maintained a tax home as of January 1, 2025, in one foreign country.
2. You changed your tax home during 2025 to a second foreign country.
3. You continued to maintain your tax home in the second foreign country for the rest of 2025.
4. You had a closer connection to each foreign country than to the United States for the period during which you maintained a tax home in that foreign country.
5. You are subject to tax as a resident under the tax laws of either foreign country for all of 2025 or subject to tax as a resident in both foreign countries for the period during which you maintained a tax home in each foreign country.

DRAFT – DO NOT FILE

DRAFT – DO NOT FILE

Tax Home

Your tax home is the general area of your main place of business, employment, or post of duty, regardless of where you maintain your family home. Your tax home is the place where you permanently or indefinitely work as an employee or a self-employed individual. If you do not have a regular or main place of business because of the nature of your work, then your tax home is the place where you regularly live. If you have neither a regular or main place of business nor a place where you regularly live, you are considered an itinerant and your tax home is wherever you work. For determining whether you have a closer connection to a foreign country, your tax home must also be in existence for the entire year, and must be located in the foreign country (or countries) in which you are claiming to have a closer connection.

Establishing a Closer Connection

You will be considered to have a closer connection to a foreign country than to the United States if you or the IRS establishes that you have maintained more significant contacts with the foreign country than with the United States.

Your answers to the questions in Part IV will help establish the jurisdiction to which you have a closer connection.

When and Where To File

If you are filing a 2025 Form 1040-NR, attach Form 8840 to it. Mail your tax return by the due date (including extensions) to the address shown in your tax return instructions.

If you do not have to file a 2025 tax return, mail Form 8840 to the Department of the Treasury, Internal Revenue Service Center, Austin, TX 73301-0215 by the due date (including extensions) for filing Form 1040-NR.

Penalty for Not Filing Form 8840

If you do not timely file Form 8840, you will not be eligible to claim the closer connection exception and may be treated as a U.S. resident.

You will not be penalized if you can show by clear and convincing evidence that you took reasonable actions to become aware of the filing requirements and significant steps to comply with those requirements.

Specific InstructionsPart I*Line 1

If you had a visa on the last day of the tax year, enter your visa type and the date you entered the United States. If you do not have a visa, enter your U.S. immigration status on the last day of the tax year and the date you entered the United States. For example, if you entered under the Visa Waiver Program, enter "VWP," the name of the Visa Waiver Program country, and the date you entered the United States.

Line 6

If you checked the "Yes" box on line 6, do not file Form 8840. You are not eligible for the closer connection exception. However, you may qualify for nonresident status by reason of a treaty. See Pub. 519 for details. If so, file Form 8833 with your Form 1040-NR.

Parts II and III

If you had a tax home in the United States at any time during the year, do not file Form 8840. You are not eligible for the closer connection exception. Otherwise, complete Part II or Part III (but not both) depending on the number of countries to which you are claiming a closer connection. If you are claiming a closer connection to one country, complete Part II. If you are claiming a closer connection to two countries, complete Part III. After completing Part II or Part III, complete Part IV.

Part IVLine 14

A "permanent home" is a dwelling unit (whether owned or rented, and whether a house, an apartment, or a furnished room) that is available at all times, continuously and not solely for short stays.

Line 29

For stocks and bonds, indicate the country of origin of the stock company or debtor. For example, if you own shares of a U.S. publicly traded corporation, the investment is considered located in the United States, even though the shares of stock are stored in a safe deposit box in a foreign country.

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Section 7701(b) and its regulations require that you give us the information. We need it to determine if you meet the closer connection exception to the substantial presence test.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For the estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form 8843 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/Form8843.

General Instructions

Who Must File

If you are an alien individual (other than a foreign government-related individual), you must file Form 8843 to explain the basis of your claim that you can exclude days of presence in the United States for purposes of the substantial presence test because you:

- Were an exempt individual, or
- Were unable to leave the United States because of a medical condition or medical problem.

When and Where To File

If you are filing a 2025 Form 1040-NR, attach Form 8843 to it. Mail your tax return by the due date (including extensions) to the address shown in your tax return instructions.

If you don't have to file a 2025 tax return, mail Form 8843 to the Department of the Treasury, Internal Revenue Service Center, Austin, TX 73301-0215 by the due date (including extensions) for filing Form 1040-NR.

Penalty for Not Filing Form 8843

If you don't file Form 8843 on time, you may not exclude the days you were present in the United States as a professional athlete or because of a medical condition or medical problem that arose while you were in the United States. Failure to exclude days of presence in the United States could result in your being considered a U.S. resident under the substantial presence test.

You won't be penalized if you can show by clear and convincing evidence that you took reasonable actions to become aware of the filing requirements and significant steps to comply with those requirements.

Substantial Presence Test

You are considered a U.S. resident if you meet the substantial presence test for 2025. You meet this test if you were physically present in the United States for at least:

- 31 days during 2025; and
- 183 days during the period 2025, 2024, and 2023, counting all the days of physical presence in 2025 but only 1/3 the number of days of presence in 2024 and only 1/6 the number of days in 2023.

Note: To claim the closer connection to a foreign country(ies) exception to the substantial presence test described in Regulations section 301.7701(b)-2, you must file Form 8840.

Days of presence in the United States. Generally, you are treated as being present in the United States on any day that you are physically present in the country at any time during the day. However, you don't count the following days of presence in the United States for purposes of the substantial presence test.

1. Days you regularly commuted to work in the United States from a residence in Canada or Mexico.
2. Days you were in the United States for less than 24 hours when you were traveling between two places outside the United States.
3. Days you were temporarily in the United States as a regular crew member of a foreign vessel engaged in transportation between the United States and a foreign country or a territory of the United States unless you otherwise engaged in trade or business on such a day.

4. Days you were unable to leave the United States because of a medical condition or medical problem that arose while you were in the United States.

5. Days you are in the United States under a NATO visa as a member of a force or civilian component to NATO. However, this exception does not apply to an immediate family member who is present in the United States under a NATO visa. A dependent family member must count every day of presence for purposes of the substantial presence test.

6. Days you were an exempt individual.

Exempt Individuals

For purposes of the substantial presence test, an exempt individual includes anyone in the following categories.

- A teacher or trainee (defined on this page).
- A student (defined on the next page).
- A professional athlete temporarily present in the United States to compete in a charitable sports event.

The term "exempt individual" also includes an individual temporarily present in the United States as a foreign government-related individual under an "A" or "G" visa, other than individuals holding "A-3" or "G-5" class visas. An individual present under an "A-3" or "G-5" class visa is not considered a foreign government-related individual and must count all their days of presence in the United States for purposes of the substantial presence test. For more details, see Pub. 519. If you are present under any other "A" or "G" class visa, you are not required to file Form 8843.

Specific Instructions

Part I—General Information

If you are attaching Form 8843 to Form 1040-NR, you aren't required to complete lines 1a through 4a of Form 8843 if you provide the requested information on the corresponding lines of Form 1040-NR. See Schedule OI (Form 1040-NR).

In this case, enter "Information provided on Form 1040-NR" on line 1a of Form 8843. Complete line 4b and the rest of Form 8843.

If Form 8843 is filed separately, you must complete all entries on the form.

Line 1a. Enter your nonimmigrant visa type (for example, F-1, F-2, J-1, J-2, H1-B, etc.) and the corresponding date of the most recent entry to the United States. See your electronic arrival/departure record from the U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) I-94 website, which can be viewed at <https://i94.cbp.dhs.gov>.

Line 1b. Enter your current nonimmigrant status, as of the last day of the tax year, such as that shown on your electronic arrival/departure record from the CBP I-94 website. Usually, this is the same as your entry on line 1a, unless you changed your status while in the United States since your last entry. If your status has changed while in the United States (for example, you entered with a B-1 or B-2 visitor visa and without leaving, you changed to an F-1 or M-1 student visa status), enter the date of change and previous status. See USCIS Form I-797, Notice of Action, for information on the date that your change of status was approved.

Part II—Teachers and Trainees

A teacher or trainee is an individual who is temporarily present in the United States under a "J" or "Q" visa (other than as a student) and who substantially complies with the requirements of the visa.

If you were a teacher or trainee under a "J" or "Q" visa, you are considered to have substantially complied with the visa requirements if you haven't engaged in activities that are prohibited by U.S. immigration laws that could result in the loss of your "J" or "Q" visa status.

DRAFT — DO NOT FILE

Even if you meet these requirements, you can't exclude days of presence in 2025 as a teacher or trainee if you were exempt as a teacher, trainee, or student for any part of 2 of the 6 prior calendar years. But see the Exception, later.

If you qualify to exclude days of presence as a teacher or trainee, complete Parts I and II of Form 8843. If you have a "Q" visa, complete Part I and only lines 6 through 8 of Part II. On line 6, enter the name, address, and telephone number of the director of the cultural exchange program in which you participated.

Exception. If you were exempt as a teacher, trainee, or student for any part of 2 of the 6 prior calendar years, you can exclude days of presence in 2025 as a teacher or trainee only if all four of the following apply.

1. You were exempt as a teacher, trainee, or student for any part of 3 (or fewer) of the 6 prior calendar years.
2. A foreign employer paid all your compensation during 2025.
3. You were present in the United States as a teacher or trainee in any of the 6 prior years.
4. A foreign employer paid all of your compensation during each of those prior 6 years you were present in the United States as a teacher or trainee.

For more details, see Pub. 519.

If you meet this exception, you must attach information to verify that a foreign employer paid all the compensation you received in 2025 and all prior years that you were present in the United States as a teacher or trainee.

Part III—Students

A student is an individual who is temporarily present in the United States under an "F," "J," "M," or "Q" visa and who substantially complies with the requirements of the visa.

If you were a student under an "F," "J," "M," or "Q" visa, you are considered to have substantially complied with the visa requirements if you haven't engaged in activities that are prohibited by U.S. immigration laws and could result in the loss of your visa status.

Even if you meet these requirements, you can't exclude days of presence in 2025 as a student if you were exempt as a teacher, trainee, or student for any part of more than 5 calendar years unless you establish that you don't intend to reside permanently in the United States. The facts and circumstances to be considered in determining if you have established that you don't intend to reside permanently in the United States include, but aren't limited to:

1. Whether you have maintained a closer connection to a foreign country than to the United States (for details, see Pub. 519); and
2. Whether you have taken affirmative steps to change your status from nonimmigrant to lawful permanent resident.

If you qualify to exclude days of presence as a student, complete Parts I and III of Form 8843. If you have a "Q" visa, complete Part I and only lines 10 through 14 of Part III. On line 10, enter the name, address, and telephone number of the director of the cultural exchange program in which you participated.

Part IV—Professional Athletes

A professional athlete is an individual who is temporarily present in the United States to compete in a charitable sports event. For details on charitable sports events, see Pub. 519.

If you qualify to exclude days of presence as a professional athlete, complete Parts I and IV of Form 8843.

Part V—Individuals With a Medical Condition or Medical Problem

For purposes of the substantial presence test, don't count the days you intended to leave the United States but couldn't do so because of a medical condition or medical problem that arose while you were in the United States. Whether you intended to leave the United States on a particular day is determined based on all the facts and circumstances. For more details, see Pub. 519.

If you qualify to exclude days of presence because of a medical condition or medical problem, complete Part I and lines 17a through 17c of Part V. Have your physician or other medical official complete line 18.

Note: You cannot exclude any days of presence in the United States under any of the following circumstances.

- You entered or returned to the United States for medical treatment. It does not matter whether you intended to leave the United States immediately after the medical treatment but couldn't do so because of unforeseen complications from the medical treatment.
- The medical condition existed before your arrival in the United States and you were aware of the condition. It does not matter whether you needed treatment for the condition when you entered the United States.
- You were initially prevented from leaving, were then able to leave, but remained in the United States beyond a reasonable period for making arrangements to leave.

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Section 7701(b) and its regulations require that you give us the information. We need it to determine if you can exclude days of presence in the United States for purposes of the substantial presence test.

You aren't required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For the estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice

We are asking for this information so you may participate in the IRS Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) and Tax Counseling for the Elderly (TCE) program which provides IRS-certified volunteer income tax preparers to assist with basic income tax return preparation for qualified individuals. The IRS authority to collect this information is 5 U.S.C. section 301 and 26 U.S.C. section 7801. The information you provide may be disclosed to others who coordinate VITA/TCE staffing, outreach, and other VITA/TCE related activities. The IRS may only disclose your return and return information as provided by 26 U.S.C. section 6103. All other records may be disclosed only for purposes the IRS deems are compatible with the purpose for which IRS collected the records, and consistent with any routine use disclosures described in the System of Record Notice (SORN) Treasury/IRS 24.030, Customer Account Data Engine (CADE) Individual Master File (IMF). You may view Treasury/IRS SORNs on the Treasury SORN website at Treasury.gov/System-of-Records-Notices (SORNs). Providing this information is voluntary however, if you do not provide the requested information the IRS volunteers may not be able to assist you with preparing and filing your tax return.

The Paperwork Reduction Act requires that the IRS display an OMB control number on all public information requests. The OMB Control Number for this study is 1545-1964. Also, if you have any comments regarding the time estimates associated with this study or suggestion on making this process simpler, please write to the Internal Revenue Service, Tax Products Coordinating Committee, SE:W:CAR:MP:T:T:SP, 1111 Constitution Ave. NW, Washington, DC 20224.

Link & Learn Taxes

Link & Learn Taxes is web-based training designed specifically for VITA/TCE volunteers. Each volunteer's ability to prepare complete and accurate returns is vital to the credibility and integrity of the program. Link & Learn Taxes, as part of the complete volunteer training kit, provides the path to achieving this high level of quality service.

Link & Learn Taxes and Publication 4012, VITA/TCE Volunteer Resource Guide, work together to help volunteers learn and practice.

Link & Learn Taxes for 2025 includes:

- Access to all VITA/TCE courses
- Easy identification of the VITA/TCE courses with the course icons
 - As you progress through a lesson, the content for Basic, Advanced, Military, or International will display, depending on the level of certification you selected
- PowerPoint presentations that can be customized to fit your classroom needs
- VITA/TCE Central to provide centralized access for training materials and reference links
- The Practice Lab
 - Gives volunteers practice with an early version of the IRS-provided tax preparation software-
 - Lets volunteers complete test practice problems
 - Lets volunteers prepare test scenario returns for the test/retest

Go to www.irs.gov, type “Link & Learn” in the Keyword field and click Search. You’ll find a detailed overview and links to the courses.

FSA (Facilitated Self Assistance) empowers taxpayers to prepare their own returns with the assistance of a certified volunteer. Taxpayers complete their own returns using interview-based software supplied by leaders in the tax preparation industry. Volunteers assist taxpayers with tax law questions.

Virtual VITA/TCE model includes any site where face-to-face activities are not used during the tax preparation process. That is, the intake specialist, IRS-tax law certified preparer (who prepares the return) and/or the quality reviewer are not face-to-face with the taxpayer. By incorporating this flexibility partners can provide taxpayers with more convenient locations to file their taxes.

For more information contact your SPEC Relationship Manager to see if you should start a FSA or Virtual VITA site in your community.
